Any other matter with the permission of the Chair:

1. The problems of implementing CBCS at the Master's level in Departments of University were discussed. The Faculty expressed concern at the different nature of courses and schemes of examination within the and it was unanimously resolved that scheme of programmes should be either semester or annual at all levels. If applicability of CBCS at all levels is not possible due to resource crunch or shortage of manpower then it would be better to adopt annual scheme at all levels, i.e. UG and PG in the University.

2. The Faculty took a serious note of no action being taken by the office of Registrar on the resolution already passed by the Academic Council (on May·25, 2012, minutes no. 18·c-i) and BOM to give the status of Department to Journalism and Mass Communication after the reminder given by the Faculty in the meeting of Academic Council held on 28.09.2018.

3. All the departments were invited to introduce new courses or revise syllabus in the respective departments as per the requirement. The same shall be applicable from the academic session 2020-2021.

4. In the last meeting of Faculty (10.09.2018) it was unanimously resolved that admission to the PhD program from the waiting list needs to be given only if those selected initially do not join within a certain time limit. Otherwise the remaining vacant seats need to be carried out to the next round of admissions. These minutes were passed by the Academic Council in its meeting held on 28.09.2019. The Faculty reaffirmed the existing provision which permits a candidate who has cleared the RET to reappear in the interview on not being selected once.
   The practice of giving admissions from waiting list as and when a vacancy arises was looked down upon by the faculty.
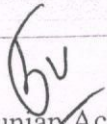

5. The Faculty expressed concern that no meeting of the Academic Council was held during the summer months of 2019. It emphasized that keeping with the well established traditions, meeting of the Academic Council should be held before the commencement of new academic session every year.
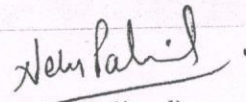

The meeting ended with the vote of thanks to the Chair.
