

Department of Sociology

Feedback Report (2021-22) of PG Level

1. Feedback Received From Students:

This report analyses the feedback on the courses of MA Sociology (CBCS) offered by the Department of Economics, MLSU, provided by the students and teachers. The response of the feedback consists of the four options as Unsatisfactory/Satisfactory/Good/Very Good. The results in this report are extracted from the feedback forms that the students & teachers were asked to fill out.

1. Feedback received from M.A 4th sem. Students

We have collected the feedback of 8 students from M.A. 4th semester, for all the papers offered by the department. Overall, the depth of the course content was highly appreciated by the students and 100 percent students found it good or very good. A good thing to highlight is that 100 percent students felt that the learning values of the courses offered are “VERY GOOD”. All the students are of the opinion that the syllabus is adequate and rated it as good or very good. Furthermore, the students appreciated the extent of syllabus covered in class and unanimously rated it as good or very good. Other positive notes were that 100 percent students felt that the benefits derived from the courses are good or very good.

2. Feedback received from M.A 3rd sem. Students

We have collected the feedback of 9 students from M.A. 3rd semester, for all the papers offered by the department. 100 percent students rated depth of the course content of all the courses as good or very good. With one accord students rated learning values of the courses “VERY GOOD”. All the students are of the opinion that the relevance of additional source material is good or very good. 100 percent students found the syllabus ‘adequate’ and rated it good or very good. 100 percent students felt that the extent of syllabus covered in class is good or very good. Additionally, all the students appreciated the benefits derived from the courses and rated it good or very good.

3. Feedback received from M.A 2nd sem. Students

We have collected the feedback of 8 students from M.A. 2nd semester, for all the papers offered by the department. Overall, the depth of the course content was highly appreciated by the students and 100 percent students found it “Very good”. A good thing to highlight is that 100 percent students felt that the learning values of the courses offered are good or very good. Approx. 89 percent students felt that the relevance of additional source material as “Good”. Other positive notes were that, Approx. 97 percent students felt that the syllabus is adequate. Approx. 97 percent students found that the applicability of the syllabus to the real world is good or very good.

4. Feedback received from M.A 1stsem. Students

We have collected the feedback from 11 students out of 24 students enrolled in M.A.1st semester, for all the courses offered by the department. 100percent students felt that the course content of all the courses are very good. Approx. 98percent students felt that the extent of coverage of course, Applicability to real life situations & adequacy of syllabus are good or very good. A good thing to highlight is that 100percent students felt that the learning values of the courses offered are “VERY GOOD”. Approx. 88percent students found that the extent of efforts required by students is good or very good. Approx. 100percent students felt that the extent of syllabus covered in the class is very good or good.

2. Feedback Received from Teachers:

Overall, the depth of the course content was highly appreciated by the Faculty members and all of them found it good or very good. 100percent teachers rated benefits derived from the course as very good or good. Syllabus covered in classes is also rated as good or very good by all of them. All the faculty members unanimously appreciated the adequacy of the syllabus and rated it as good or very good. Furthermore, 100 percent students felt that the course content of all the courses, learning values & relevance of textual reading material are very good.

Department of Sociology

Feedback Report (2021-22) of UG (Honours)

Feedback Received From Students:-

This report analyses the feedback on the courses of BA Sociomics offered by the Department of Sociology, MLSU, provided by the students. The response of the feedback consists of the four options as Unsatisfactory/Satisfactory/Good/Very Good. The results in this report are extracted from the feedback forms that the students & teachers were asked to fill out.

1. Feedback received from B.A 1st Year Students

We have collected the feedback from 11 students of B.A.(Honours) 1stYear. Overall, the depth of the course content was highly appreciated by the students and 70 percent students found it good or very good. A good thing to highlight is that 90 percent students felt that the learning values of the courses offered are “VERY GOOD”. All the students are of the opinion that the syllabus is adequate and rated it as good or very good. Furthermore, the students appreciated the Adequacy of syllabus and unanimously rated it as very good. Other positive notes were that 88 percent students felt that the benefits derived from the courses, Extend of Syllabus Covered in Class and Extend of Effort Required by Students and rated it good or very good.

2. Feedback received from B.A 2ndYear Students

We have collected the feedback from 07 students of B.A.(Honours) 2nd Year. 75 percent students rated benefits derived from the course as very good, depth of the course content of all the courses as good or very good and depth of the course content as very good. With one accord students rated learning values of the courses “VERY GOOD”. All the students are of the opinion that the relevance of additional source material is good or very good. 80 percent students found the syllabus ‘adequate’ and rated it good or very good.

3. Feedback received from B.A 3rd Year Students

We have collected the feedback from 13 students of B.A. (Honours) 3rdYear. Overall, the Applicability of the syllabus to real life situations was highly appreciated by the students and 92 percent students found it “Very good”. 89 percent students felt that the Clarity and relevance of textual reading materials, learning value (in terms of knowledge, concept, manual skill, analytical abilities and broadening perspectives) is good or very good. 78 percent students felt that the extent of syllabus covered in class is good or very good. Additionally, all the students appreciated the benefits derived from the courses, Extend of Syllabus Covered in Class and Extend of Effort Required by Students and rated it good or very good.

Department of Sociology

Feedback Report (2021-22) of UG (Pass Course)

Feedback Received From Students:-

This report analyses the feedback on the courses of BA Sociomics offered by the Department of Sociology, MLSU, provided by the students. The response of the feedback consists of the four options as Unsatisfactory/Satisfactory/Good/Very Good. The results in this report are extracted from the feedback forms that the students & teachers were asked to fill out.

1. Feedback received from B.A 1st Year Students

We have collected the feedback from 52 students of B.A. 1st Year. Overall, the depth of the course content was highly appreciated by the students and 80 percent students found it good or very good. A good thing to highlight is that 100 percent students felt that the learning values of the courses offered are “VERY GOOD”. All the students are of the opinion that the syllabus is adequate and rated it as good or very good. Furthermore, the students appreciated the Adequacy of syllabus and unanimously rated it as very good. Other positive notes were that 93 percent students felt that the benefits derived from the courses, Extend of Syllabus Covered in Class and Extend of Effort Required by Students and rated it good or very good.

2. Feedback received from B.A 2nd Year Students

We have collected the feedback from 39 students of B.A. 2nd Year. 93 percent students rated benefits derived from the course as very good, depth of the course content of all the courses as good or very good and depth of the course content as very good. With one accord students rated learning values of the courses “VERY GOOD”. All the students are of the opinion that the relevance of additional source material is good or very good. 100 percent students found the syllabus ‘adequate’ and rated it good or very good.

3. Feedback received from B.A 3rd Year Students

We have collected the feedback from 31 students of B.A. 3rd Year. Overall, the Applicability of the syllabus to real life situations was highly appreciated by the students and 100 percent students found it “Very good”. 78 percent students felt that the Clarity and relevance of textual reading materials, learning value (in terms of knowledge, concept, manual skill, analytical abilities and broadening perspectives) is good or very good. 93 percent students felt that the extent of syllabus covered in class is good or very good. Additionally, all the students appreciated the benefits derived from the courses, Extend of Syllabus Covered in Class and Extend of Effort Required by Students and rated it good or very good.