Feedback Analysis Report (Year 2017-18) and (Year 2018-19)

Feedback for the courses under LL.B., B.A.LL.B., LL.M. and PGDLL programme was collected from students, teachers and alumini through feedback forms. The directions of the Bar Council of India are also a major deciding factor in introducing changes to the courses imparted within these programmes. General suggestions were also taken from the above stakeholders.

Analysis of feedback received from Students :

After analysing the feedback, it can be said that majority of the students found the programs relevant for local needs, and appreciated it for the knowledge and skills imparted to pursue the legal profession.

Some of them suggested changes in the content was towards modification in the syllabus due to change in the Rajasthan Judicial Services Examination syllabus.

Analysis of feedback received from Teachers :

The teachers imparting discourse especially in English and Taxation subjects suggested changes in the subject syllabus. Taxation was suggested to be altered on behalf of introduction of GST instead of Indirect Taxes. Suggestions were invited from all the teachers for introducing changes in the courses of their expertise.

Analysis of feedback received from alumini:

Alumini also suggested the modification in syllabus in accordance with the change in RJS syllabus.
