An International Webinar on “Holi : A Custodian of Vibrant Indian Values & Culture”

Department of History , Mohanlal Sukhadia University, Udaipur, in collaboration with Indus International Research Foundation, New Delhi, is organizing an International Webinar on “Holi : A Custodian of Vibrant Indian Values & Culture” on 11th and 12th June 2021. (Time: 10 AM to 2:30 PM)

Holi Festival is an ancient Hindu festival of Indian Subcontinent. The festival is also agricultural festival, celebrating the arrival of spring. The event starts from the evening of full moon in Phalgun ,Holika Bonfire (Holika Dahan) , and on next day, playing of colours (Dhulandi) takes place. Holika Bonfire represents victory of good over evil, the destruction of the demoness Holika. People perform religious rituals and then pray for the destruction of their internal evil. The tradition of playing colours is rampant in North India and even in that region, there can be no comparison to the Holi of Mathura, Vrindavan, and
