Bachelor of Library and Information Science
Examination, 2001

REFERENCE AND INFORMATION SERVICE
Paper-V

Time: 3 Hours
Maximum Marks: 100

Attempt four questions.
All questions carry equal marks.

1. "Reference is to the Library what Intelligence is to the Military." Discuss.

2. What are the specific characteristics of three categories of information sources? Discuss various types of primary sources with examples.

3. What is SDI service? Describe system components and the functional phase of SDI service. What is the difference between CAS and SDI?

4. Describe the need for rendering translation service in Scientific Research Organisation and evaluate any one of the translation service available to scientists.

5. Discuss the importance and need of a Documentation List in a library. Enumerate the various steps in the preparation of Documentation List.

6. What do you understand by Information Service? Discuss the role, qualities and qualifications of an Information Officer.

7. Discuss the purpose of identifying the users need for information. How would you ascertain their information needs?

8. Write short notes on any two of the following :
    (i) Reference Interview
    (ii) Reprography
    (iii) Role of the Computer in Library.

1