

Bachelor of Library and Information Science
Examination, 2001
LIBRARY AND SOCIETY
Paper-VIII

Time: 3 Hours
[Maximum Marks: 100]

Attempt four questions.
All questions carry equal marks.

1. UNESCO says that "without support of the Public Libraries, there can be no true democracy, no real freedom of mind or of body." Explain how this statement is correct.
2. S.R. Rangnathan says "time is money and money is time". In which law of library science does he explain the above statement?
3. Discuss the major activities of our library movement in the post independent India.
4. What should be done to raise the standard of our library profession?
5. Describe all types of libraries with special reference to the role of national libraries.
6. What do you understand by library resource sharing? Discuss the concept, need and its need.
7. What are the main shortcomings of library education in India? How can it be reformed?
8. Write short notes on any two of the following:
  - (i) School Libraries.
  - (ii) F.I.D.
  - (iii) UNESCO
  - (IV) Indian Library Association.
  - (v) Library Legislation.