

M. A. (Previous) Examination, 2001

POLITICAL SCIENCE

Paper-III

International Politics

Time: 3 Hours]

[Maximum Marks: 100

Attempt four questions.
All questions carry equal marks.

1. Examine the meaning of international politics and discuss its nature.
2. Explain the term 'realism' in international politics and less discuss the main features of realistic theory.
3. Define 'Power' and explain its major elements.
4. Explain the main functions of diplomacy and comment on the decline of diplomacy in recent years.
5. Examine the main features of decision making theory in international politics.
6. Explain the concept of non-alignment and point out its contribution in understanding of international politics.
7. Critically review the concept of functionalism in international politics and comment on the organization of U.N.
8. Discuss the main features of South Asian Association of Regional Co-operation and comment on its problems.
9. Explain the main features of post cold war situation. Do you agree with this view that international politics still remains multi-polar?
10. Write short notes on any two of the following:
 - (i) Issue of Human Rights in International Politics.
 - (ii) Problems of Disarmament
 - (iii) Conflicts in South Asia.
 - (iv) Environmental Issues in International Politics.